

Donald Parker Attorney

Donald “Trey” Parker dedicates his legal career to emphasize litigation and advocacy. Donald is diversely experienced handling complex litigation cases ranging from products liability to contract and business disputes. Donald graduated summa cum laude from Texas Tech University School of Law and dedicated his education to specializing in trial advocacy. There, he was involved in the law school’s advocacy program and law review, serving as a member of the executive board for both. While in law school, Donald interned for two years with the Honorable Les Hatch of the 237th District Court of Lubbock County, Texas. Donald’s experience with the Court prepared him to litigate cases logically and concisely. These skills prepared Donald to excel in his practice, having already taken multiple depositions and argued dispositive motions. Donald has quickly developed the essential litigation skills to achieve client goals.
