

Privacy Policy

Crawford, Wishnew & Lang PLLC takes the protection of confidential and/or sensitive information seriously. Any information provided in payment of legal fees will be used for that purpose, and we will send you a receipt for your transaction to the email address on file. We will not share your information with any third party.

No mobile or messaging consent information will be shared with third parties/affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes. All the above categories exclude text messaging originator opt-in data and consent; this information will not be shared with any third parties.

Wherever we collect sensitive information (such as credit card data), that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. You can verify this by looking for a closed lock icon at the bottom of your web browser, or looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the web page

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, billing or customer service) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.

Our Privacy Policy may change from time to time and all updates will be posted on this page. If you feel that we are not abiding by this Privacy Policy, please contact us.
